

From the Principal's Desk...

At this Friday's assembly, the last group of students to present their speeches will take place. I would like to thank every student in our school for their wonderful presentations throughout the last few weeks. This is also the last weekly assembly that will be held for this year. Next week, our Year 5 students will present their school leaders speeches and the week after will be presentation night. The term is going so fast!

I have reminded students this week that chewing/bubble gum is not allowed at school. I appreciate parents supporting us in this effort.

The Life Education Van will be visiting our school tomorrow. Due to unforeseen circumstances the van could not be brought to our school last week.

I would like to finish with some very exciting news. Next Thursday and Friday, our school will receive our connected classroom! This means that students will be able to video conference lessons and participate in virtual excursions and staff will be able to use it for professional experience days. The connected classroom will be installed in the Upper Division classroom. This new resource opens a new world of opportunity for all students K-6. We will be able to access many virtual programs to compliment the quality programs we offer at our school. Upper Division students will re-locate to the new room while it is being installed.

Have a great week!
Brad Hunt

Dear Primary Schools of the New England North West Region

The Country Music Association of Australia is thrilled to offer Primary School students of the New England North West a wonderful opportunity to be at the 2011 Country Music Awards of Australia, January 22nd at the Tamworth Regional Entertainment Centre.

The Country Music Association of Australia has sectioned off a tiered seating area that it wishes to offer to primary school age students (ages 5 - 12) attending with their parent / guardian. This allocated seating area is in the bronze section at the rear of the venue. The special offer only available to primary school aged children and their parent/guardian is that with any purchase of a bronze adult ticket to the value of $55.00 the child receives admittance for free. The CMAA wants to share this amazing musical experience with the kids of the New England North West to be up close, to see and hear the industry's best artists and musicians, and be part of a 5,000 crowd filmed for television. We have set aside 280 seats in this section for this special offer. To access the offer is very simple and can be completed online or over the phone. Online at www.country.com.au/cmaawards/educationoffer and enter the code 2011cmaa.

Email enquiries can be made at info@country.com.au and telephone enquiries at (02)67661577.
